

Call for INS Awards Nominations

Award	Eligible Period	Description	INS Membership Required	Required Application Materials ¹	Lecture	Annual / Mid-Year
Post Doctoral Award	Holding a postdoctoral position; no more than 4 years post PhD	Researchers initiating their career who have made noteworthy contributions to neuropsychology or applied neuropsychology (originality, novelty, quality and impact). Productivity that reflects this contribution is required.	No	Nomination letter, CV, 1 letter of support	Yes	Both
Early Career Award	≤ 10 yrs. after terminal degree ²	Independent research contribution with, at minimum, a national reputation, and appropriate productivity.	No	Nomination letter, CV, at least 1 letter of support	Yes, about research	Both
Mid-Career Award	11-24 years after terminal degree ²	Late associate-early full professor level, (growing) international reputation, substantive research impact (e.g., citations, impact factors).	No	Nomination letter, CV, 2 letters of support	Yes, about research	Both
Mentoring Award	Mid-career to senior	Recognition of an individual whose mentoring/teaching activities have made a profound impact on careers of students in the field of neuropsychology (e.g., evidenced by accomplishments of the mentor's trainees). The impact of the awardee's mentoring should extend beyond the mentor's home institution.	No	Nomination letter, CV, 2 letters of support	Yes	Both
Lifetime Award for Research	>25 years	Independent established senior researcher, international reputation, substantive research impact. May or may not be active in her/his career; impact transformative for the field, i.e., by the development of a significant body of knowledge within an area of neuropsychology; promotion of a theory.	No	Nomination letter, CV, 2 letters of support	Yes	Both
Lifetime Award for Education	Senior	Recognition of a senior individual who has furthered the development of the field of neuropsychology beyond their own institution. Methods of educational impact are not limited (books, courses) with (intern)national impact. May or may not be active.	No	Nomination letter, CV, 2 letters of support	Yes	Both
Lifetime Award for Service	Senior	Recognition of an individual who has made a significant contribution to INS through commitment and support of the goals of the society. Criteria for the service to INS award are wide (e.g. pioneer status in the development of INS, leadership at transformational times). May or may not be active.	Yes	Nomination letter, CV, 2 letters of support	Yes	Both
Distinguished Career Award	At/near end of career	The Distinguished Career Award has been established by the INS Board of Directors to recognize individuals who are at or near the end of their careers, and who have made major, sustained contributions to the field of neuropsychology as well as to the INS.	Yes	Nomination letter, CV, 2 letters of support	Yes	Both

¹ Application Materials: The application must include a nomination letter, a CV, and one to two letters of support (refer to the criteria for details). The nomination statement should explicitly address the specific award for which the candidate is being nominated and should not exceed two pages. Statements may be written in any language. The eligibility period is flexible for individuals who have undertaken caregiving responsibilities. Nominations and support letters may be submitted by anyone, except for self-nominations, which are not permitted. If you wish to resubmit a nomination, you must provide all required documents again. Please submit all application materials to ins@the-ins.org and salasriquelme@gmail.com.

Due Date: Nominations may be submitted at any time. Ideally, awards nominations will be received four months prior to the meeting where the award is to be given. For an award to be considered for the INS July Meeting, please submit nominations by March 31st. For an award to be considered for the INS February Meeting, please submit nominations by September 30th of the prior year.

² Terminal degree can be either a PhD degree, a master or a certified clinical degree (varies across countries).